Life Group Questions: Lessons from a Compassionate Christ

- How does the ministry catalyst, commands, and call of the compassionate Christ confront complacency?
- Why is a call to ministry unavoidable for any disciple of Christ, though the degree may differ?
- What are some ministry needs in your church and the greater community to which you are aware?
- How might you be able to assist in strengthening these areas of ministry instead of complaining about or avoiding them?
- In what ways are you tempted to be like the crowds who just want the gifts of Jesus instead of Jesus himself?
- In light of this text and Jesus' compassion, how have you been challenged to grow in your own compassion so that it would look more like Christ's?
